DEDICATION

This year's Proctorian Dedication was by the unanimous choice of those voting in the Senior Class. We are dedicating our yearbook to a man who has dedicated much of his time to the Proctor schools.

As a parent, he has attended many events, acting as a chaperone or taking pictures, which he freely shared with the Proctorian. Over the past several years, a good number of the yearbook's sports pictures appeared through his generosity.

He also finds time to serve on the Proctor School Board, a task which demands many hours from its members.

The Proctorian staff is proud to dedicate the 1986 yearbook to MR. LLOYD HUGHES.

HIGH SCHOOL MEMORIES

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone
We're starting a new life
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by
Although it hurts us inside
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day
Now we've reached the end
We are going away.
How do you say goodbye
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one
Don't think of school as ending-
Think a new life has begun.

CLOSE-UP

Six students traveled to Washington, D.C. in early May to participate in the week-long Close-Up program. Through daily workshops, seminars, and study visits to federal institutions and governmental agencies around Washington, these students and their advisor Mike Pluta shared a unique experience with students from around the country. By being directly involved, they gained a real world perspective on current issues and a better understanding of our government. In addition, they had a lot of fun meeting people and exploring our nation's capital.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1985-1986 Student Council spent the year rebuilding the council and reforming its goals. The year started off right with the kick-off dance held in early September to the music of SuperSounds. The group returned in October for the annual Halloween Dance. A major step in making the council an active part of PHS was the daily broadcasting of the morning announcements by council members. The council also aided in the designing and selling of new school jackets. With the help of advisor Michael Pluta, several other projects were carried out enroute to a well-deserved picnic for all members. Officers were: Angela Fletcher, President; Dan Gilliam, Vice-President; Julie Anderson, Secretary; and Sue Reissig, Treasurer.

GIRLS STATE BOYS STATE

Two girls and two boys, along with two alternates, are selected each year by the faculty to attend the Green Mountain Girls State held at Vermont college and the Green Mountain Boys State held at Norwich University. This year's representatives, Sue Reissig, Angela Fletcher, Rob Cowans, and Brian Winger, spent a week in June gaining first-hand experience in government by forming and governing towns with other students from around the state.

A.V. STAFF/LIBRARY AIDES

This hard-working library crew helps Mrs. Sherman run the library smoothly. The aides do countless miscellaneous chores within the library, and the A.V. Staff transports equipment to keep the library in working order. They provide a valuable service to the library and the school.

PHANTOM PROFILE

Kris Triller and Kim Fletcher have done a super job the last three years in submitting weekly articles to the Rutland Herald. The "Phantom Profile", which appears each Monday, informs the Rutland community of PHS happenings. Kim Zawistowski and Christa Hastings took over in January and, with the help of advisor Mrs. Sherman, continued the fine work of Kim and Kris.

MAJORETTES AND . . .

FLAG UNIT

L to R: Stacey Lansing, Susan Simonds, Lisa Baccei, Kris Triller, Kim Catterton, Stephanie Salvail, Roberta Salvail

This was a productive year for both the majorettes and Flag units. The Hallowe'en Parade saw the majorettes dressed as baby dolls and flag members representing six different nations in Walt Disney's "It's a Small World".

The Loyalty Day Parade was by far the best effort of both units. Performing to "Yankee Doodle Dandy" seemed to inspire both squads to precision performance.

The majorettes are led by Senior co-captains Kris Triller and Lisa Baccei. The Flag Unit was led by Senior co-captains Kim Faulkner and Julie Cowans.

l. to r. Karin Kohler, Lissa Lewis, Julie Cowans, Kim Faulkner, Missy Center, Michele Lancour

Even though they were small in size, the Senior High Band had a successful year. The marching band entered many parades such as the Hallowe'en Parade, Loyalty Day Parade, and Memorial Day parade. The concert band put on a Christmas concert and during the spring, the stage band combined with Mill River to put on a stage band concert. Although the band will be losing many seniors, next year's band has a lot of potential.

Members are: Todd Allard, Julie Anderson, Julie Cowans, Kim Fletcher, Dan Gilliam, Jerry Miglorie, David Rogers, Nancy Tilden, and Kris Triller, 1985 inductees, and the new inductees, Rob Cowans, Kristin Esterbrook, Kim Faulkner, Angela Fletcher, Sue Reissig, Sean Ward, and Brian Winger.

Editor Shari Hughes

Although very small, this year's Proctorian staff worked extremely hard to produce a quality yearbook. Under the direction of adviser Mrs. Mills and editor Shari Hughes, this group canvassed Rutland and the surrounding area for advertisements, held a successful drive to sell the yearbook, and devoted a lot of time in school and at home to work on layouts. Their time was well-spent as they published another fine yearbook. Working with Shari were Kim Fletcher, Business Editor; Kim Faulkner, Advertisement Editor; and Julie Cowans, Sports Editor.

WINTER

CARNIVAL

WINTER CARNIVAL AND TALENT SHOW
The class of '86 were winners at this year's winter carnival. All classes participated and gave a super effort, however.

The talent show which followed was full of excitement. Some highlights were a dazzling drum solo by Dan Gilliam, a piano solo by Julie Cowans and Todd Allard on guitar, as well as many acts from all the other classes. Once again, the seniors came out on top: Dan Gilliam's drum solo took first, the Honeymooners took second, Todd Allard's solo was third and Remedy and Cheese and Quackers tied for fourth place.

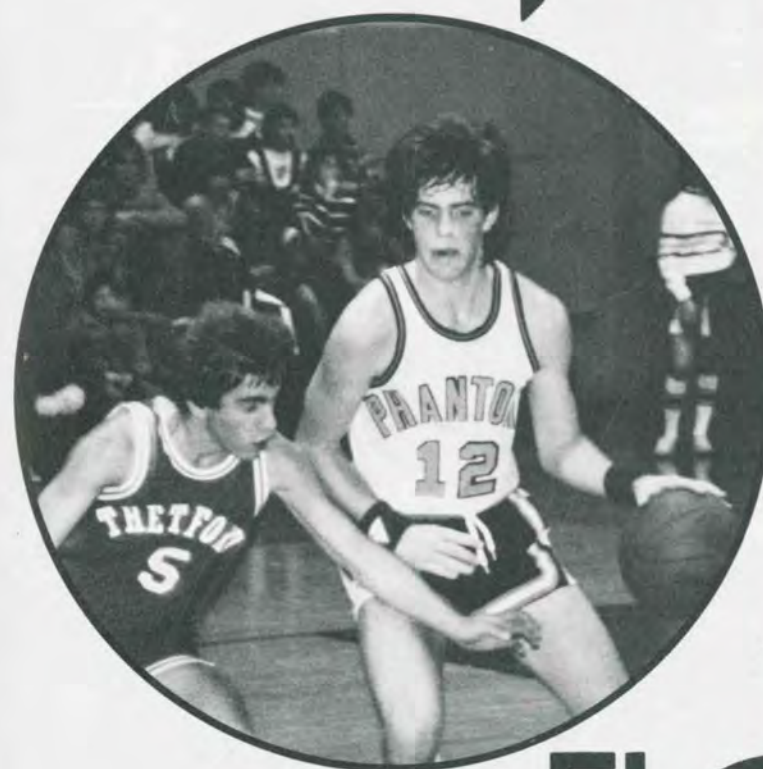

GERMAN CLUB

Due to the threat of international terrorism, the number of students who traveled to Germany this year was considerably fewer than in the past. However, four students, Karen Howland, Chris Rodgers, Jonathon Sargent, and Julie Jasmin, and two dedicated chaperones, Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Clark, took the memorable overseas voyage from April 18-April 26. They enjoyed many beautiful sights in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland as they soaked up the foreign culture. Much shopping, sight-seeing, and learning took place before the group safely returned home.

The soccer team was coached by Richard Wright. Throughout the season all the team members had a chance to serve as captain. This team was small, but they worked hard and ended their season with a 1-6 record. Everyone had a fun season and many of the players are looking forward to next year.

RAHA OTTERS

The 1985-1986 RAHA Otters enjoyed one of their most successful seasons ever in their seven years in the Connecticut Valley Hockey League. After winning the CVHL title in regular season play, the team went on to earn the CVHL crown in the post-season tournament held at Dartmouth College. Capping off an amazing 16-1-1 season, the Otters won their third championship in four appearances. Proctor was proud to supply two outstanding Otters, junior Rob Cowans and freshman Jay Thomas. Jay saw a lot of playing time in his first year with the team and looks to be a valuable member in the years to come. Rob, an assistant captain, was the league leading scorer and played the entire season without a penalty. He was a unanimous choice for the First All-Star team and was awarded the Otters sportsmanship trophy. Losing only two seniors, this Otter team promises to return with an excellent chance to retain their CVHL crown.

Varsity Girls Basketball

This year's team had a very successful season finishing at 18-4. They were coached by Wade Mitchell and captained by seniors Julie Cowans, Kim Fletcher, and Nancy Tilden. In CVGAL action, the team was the small school champion with two members selected for the all-opponent team (Julie Cowans and Nancy Tilden). During post-season play, the team defeated Blue Mountain in the quarterfinals and then suffered a loss in an exciting triple overtime game to People's Academy. Although the team will be losing six seniors, next year's team looks to be strong with point guard Chris Barker and several other talented players returning.

INDEPENDENT ATHLETES REPRESENTING PROCTOR

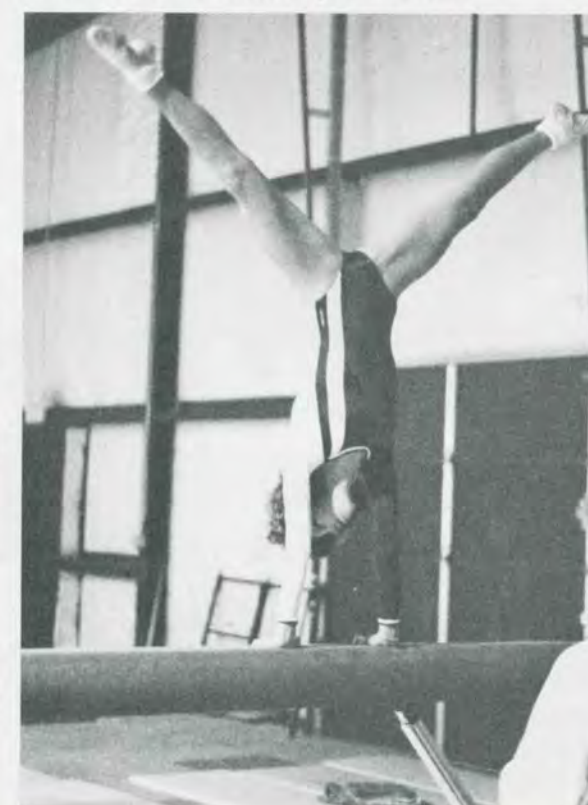

KIM ZAWISTOWSKI - - - SKIER

For the second year, sophomore Kim Zawistowski represented Proctor in the high school alpine ski races. During the four-meet regular season at Pico and Suicide Six, she placed in the top ten in every race competing against approximately eighty skiers. Kim made the State Alpine High School Ski Championships. She placed seventeenth out of 76 competitors in the slalom event. In order to qualify for state finals, an individual who is not on a qualifying team must finish in the event at the District Level. Kim finished seventh in the slalom and narrowly missed qualifying for the giant slalom with a twelfth place finish.

DAWN STEELE - - - GYMNAST

Dawn Steele, a freshman, competed as an independent in gymnastics representing Proctor High School. She travelled with Middlebury Union High School's team and participated in eight regular season meets. Dawn was the top all-around scorer in six of these meets. In the Division II Gymnastics State Championship meet Dawn won second place in the all-around competition. She placed second on bars, beam, and floor, and third place in vault.

This year's golf team was young and relatively inexperienced. All eight members will be returning next year, so the team can look forward to a successful season. They played on a number of courses, and they did fairly well against some top teams. They concluded their season with five wins and nine losses in dual meets. Jim Wolynech was the coach.

TENNIS CLUB

This year was the first year Proctor had a tennis club. The club was coached by Randy Phillipe. Although there were several outstanding individuals who won matches, the boy's team ended its season with an 0-3 record. The girl's team had a successful season ending its year with a 2-1 record. Overall, this season was a learning experience that provided a lot of fun for the team members.

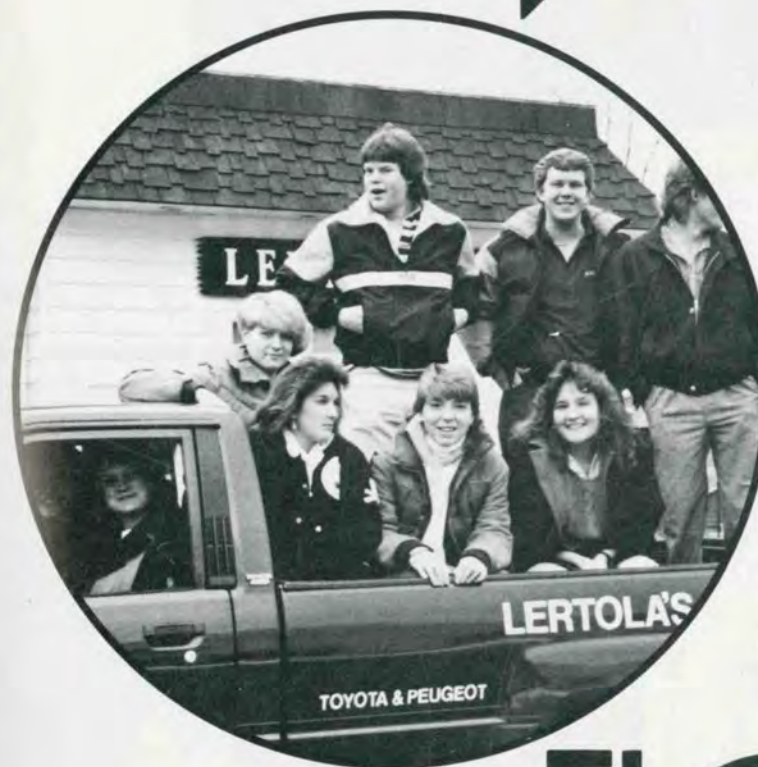

JR HIGH BASEBALL

The team was coached by Frank Urso and Mark di Gangi. They concluded their season with a 4-3 record. Many of the players will be returning to play again next year and look forward to another successful season.
